REPORTER CAUSES EXCITEMENT

Concord, N. H., Sept. 12.—In the federal district court in this city this afternoon Judge Aldrich granted the petition of counsel for Harry Thaw for a writ of habeas corpus, returnable at Littleton Tuesday next at 11 a. m. Nathaniel Martin of this city, and Merrill Shuriff of Lancaster, appeared as counsel for Thaw. The state of New York was not represented at the hearing.

The proceeding in the federal court, heard off Thaw's extradition with the result that the case may be taken to the United States supreme court.

Guarded by Fifteen Officers.

Cosmopolitan, N. H., Sept. 12.—"After another night, speckled with rumors of kidnapping, Thaw awoke today to find upon him a guard of fifteen officers, with counsel regarding a hearing with Governor Parker at Concord in opposition to his extradition to New York. This hearing, according to the understanding of the Thaw lawyers, will be held Wednesday. Thaw probably will be removed to the capital Monday without further court procedure here. Annoyed at the constant and recurring reports that attempts were being made to spirit him away the fugitive issued the following statement before breakfast:

"Some outside people are spreading rumors which are unfounded and directly contrary to the facts.

"I am very well contented where I am. I like the way people are standing up against the efforts of outsiders to rush things. Also I am very glad of the information obtained by local counsel and by Attorney Grossman of New York that Governor Fellner may accord a full hearing.

"We received warning Wednesday that certain strong arm men were being brought into New Hampshire. Now fifteen special local police have been sworn in to our great satisfaction. While they are on duty there will not be any strong arm work."

Reporter Causes Excitement.

Neither side is trusting the other and Thaw's guards are trusting neither side. All hands kept watch at the hotel where Thaw was housed until well after midnight. At 2 a. m. an overheard report, sure that the presence of some strange men and an automobile about the building meant no good, ran down the silent hallway shouting. The entire hotel was awake in an instant. Sheriff Drew, who had retired, ran into the hall in his night shirt, and twenty reporters, half dressed, dashed for the lobby to telephone for automobiles. Women guests peered from behind doors and the Thaw guards, worried but ignorant of what was the matter, massed themselves in front of his door. Thaw himself did not wake up. Jerome also slept soundly though Deputy Attorney General Kennedy of New York appeared for a few moments and satisfied himself that Thaw was safe.

VESUVIUS ERUPTION DUE?

American Scientist Warns of Another
Volcano Disturbance.

Naples, Sept. 12.—A serious eruption of Vesuvius in the near future was predicted on Thursday by Professors Stoltz and Jacob of the University of Michigan and Prof. Malandra of Naples, who descended to the lowest point in the volcano's crater ever reached.

For eight hours the explorer remained in the bowels of the mountain, making scientific observations and their descent broke all records.

They declared, on ascending, that they obtained data which they said shows conclusively that another great eruption of the volcano is imminent.

KEYSTONE STATE IS ON EVE OF PRIMARY

Pennsylvania to Elect State and County Officers Tuesday

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 12.—What is considered to be in many respects the most important political campaign ever waged in Pennsylvania virtually ended today. Next Tuesday a statewide primary will be held for the nomination of candidates for two superior court judges, for municipal officials of all the leading cities and officials of the 67 counties of the state. Neither the governorship nor any other of the high offices of the state are involved in the contest. Nevertheless, the primary of next Tuesday and the regular election to follow in November threaten revolutionary results and may lead to a complete reorganization of the political forces and the changing of the political map of Pennsylvania.

Commission Form in Small Cities.

The primary will be operated under radical new laws designed to make it possible for the electorate to select efficient, progressive and unbiased candidates for public office. The new election laws, coupled with advanced ideas in municipal government which are to come into effect at the same time, are believed to sound the death knell of machine government.

The last legislature provided for radical changes in the system of government in third-class cities, abolishing the mayor and council and establishing a pure commission form of government. In the primaries next Tuesday a mayor and four commissioners will be nominated to govern the 23 third class cities of the state. Non-partisan elections will be held in all the cities of Pennsylvania, except Philadelphia.

The fight in Philadelphia centers about the election of councilmen, county officials and nine municipal court judges. The municipal court is a new tribunal to try minor civil and criminal cases. The nine judges are to be chosen without regard to party affiliations.

The idea that machine government must be destroyed and that the new primary and election laws give opportunity to bring about such destruction is paramount in the campaign. In Philadelphia and in nearly all the other important communities, the Washington party forces, and the Democratic party are united to overthrow the so-called Republican machine.

BODY OF GAYNOR PLACED ABOARD THE LUSITANIA

Liverpool, Sept. 12.—The body of Gaynor was removed this morning from the Liverpool town hall, where it had been accorded unprecedented honor by Great Britain, and taken to the steamer Lusitania. It was placed in a special mortuary chapel on the forward deck. The Lusitania is due to arrive in New York Friday, September 19. A special guard of police-men watched over the body in the town hall throughout the night. The casket rested on a great catafalque brought from Westminster abbey. Early this morning the body was re-embalmed, this being found necessary. A death mask also was taken, according to the instructions of Mrs. Gaynor. In the dim light of the candles and in the great fog which shrouded the hallways, "Rev. Theodore A. Howard, vicar of St. Matthews, conducted an impressive Church of England funeral ritual over the body.

CALLS KING OF GREECE KING OF ALL THE LIARS

London, Sept. 12.—"The king of liars" is the title bestowed on the king of Greece by Pastor D. N. Furnadjeff, a Bulgarian, who is in London as a member of the delegation which presented the foreign office with a statement regarding the proportions of Bulgarians in the region of the Rhos-Media line. Pastor Furnadjeff, who is a Princeton graduate, declares the Greek monarch has earned the title by his signed statement to the press that 30,000 Moslems had been massacred at Doiran by the Bulgarians. The pastor is a native of the district near Doiran, and he declares that the town, which is almost purely Bulgarian, has only 7,000 people, and that in the whole district there are not more than 1,000 Moslems. The Bulgarian clergyman states that the Greek king has been equally far from the truth in his other charges against the Bulgarian armies. He declares that on inquiry at the British foreign office, he learned that not a single English consul in the Balkans had reported the Bulgarians as the perpetrators of atrocities.

BODY OF BIG TIM SULLIVAN FOUND

New York Congressman - Elect
Met Death Under Train
13 Days Ago

WAS MISSING SINCE AUG. 31

Escaped From Brother's Home
While Nurse Was Asleep

SPECIAL ELECTION NECESSARY

New York, Sept. 12.—"Big Tim" Sullivan of New York, the politician who rose from newsboy to Congressman, is dead. His mangled body was identified today by his step-brother Larry Mulligan, after it had lain for thirteen days in a local morgue. Sullivan eluded his nurses early on the morning of August 31 and a few hours after, was killed by a train in Pellam Parkway.

On Way to Potter's Field.

Sullivan's body was on its way to Potter's field when the chance observation of Policeman Purfield led to identification. The transfer from the Fordham morgue to one at Bellevue was usually a preliminary to the interment of city paupers and unidentified dead in the public burying ground.

With no identification marks or articles in the pockets, the body lay in the Fordham morgue thirteen days awaiting identification. This morning it was sent to the Bellevue morgue. There was stationed Peter Purfield, a policeman who had known "Big Tim" and something about the expression and features stirred Purfield's memory. After he pondered an hour or so, Purfield remarked to a reporter: "That looks a little bit like 'Big Tim.' This reporter thought so too.

Escapes While Nurse Sleeps.

A telephone message brought a group of "Big Tim's" outside friends and none of them recognized the changed features of the man they had known in his prime. Larry Mulligan, a step-brother, was summoned. He looked at the face once and turned away. "It is 'Big Tim,'" he said. The night he disappeared, he stayed up till 2 o'clock playing pinocle. Two nurses went to bed at midnight, leaving a third to continue the game. The third nurse became drowsy. "Big Tim" did not. When the nurse finally slumbered "Big Tim" crept noiselessly out of the house and struck across the fields for the railroad and met his death.

Special Election Necessary.

He was elected to congress now in session but never took his seat because of illness. He drew pay "by commission," the House agreeing to pay a salary to those appointed by New York courts to look after his affairs. The death necessitates a special election.

G. A. R. REUNION OPENS.

Veterans of North Assemble at Chattanooga for 47th Convention.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Headquarters for the 47th annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic were opened here today. When Commander-in-Chief Beers and the advance guard of veterans arrived here they found Chattanooga smothered in bunting and as such enthusiasm over the old flag as they ever saw in any northern city. The G. A. R. has never had more complete arrangements made for its entertainment than this year by the state of Tennessee. All the citizens of Chattanooga, which is to be the first camping place of the union veterans in the old south, seem to have entered into generous rivalry to see who can spread the most bunting and contribute most to the entertainment of the visitors.

Though the big events of the encampment week do not begin until next Tuesday it is expected that the most of the veterans and other visitors will reach Chattanooga by Monday morning. A number of society and brigade reunions are scheduled for the first of the week. Then the most of the veterans will desire a day or two to visit the old battlefields and inspect the memorials before the encampment opens and the parade, the business sessions and other features will necessitate their presence in the city during the greater part of each day.

SULZER KEPT $50,000 CAMPAIGN MONEY?

Witness Says Accounts Failed to Show Brewers' Contribution

New York, Sept. 12.—The assembly board of managers for the impeachment of Governor Sulzer announced today that Charles Deresh, a salesman, allied with brewery interests, had testified privately that he had collected nearly $50,000 for Sulzer's campaign, which was not accounted for in the Governor's statement of campaign contributions. "This is the most sensational evidence we have got yet," said Assemblyman Levy, who made the announcement when the board met to continue its investigations today for the purpose of gathering evidence for the impeachment trial.

PUT BAN ON GUNWOMEN.

Restrictive Measure Adopted to End
Militant Procedure.

London, Sept. 12.—Recruiting for the corps of gunwomen of the Women's Social and Political Union has come to a standstill for the reason that the authorities, alarmed at the growing number of women asking for permission to bear arms, have declined to issue any more licenses to women. Nevertheless, no less than three hundred licenses to carry arms had been issued to members of the W. S. P. U. before this restrictive measure was adopted.

It is believed that this disquieting information, supplemented by news from Scotland Yards that the militants had erected a pistol range near London, caused the home office to make overtures for the present truce between the government and the Pankhurst forces.

DARROW EMBRACED WOMAN; IS MENTIONED IN SUIT

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 12.—Clarence S. Darrow, the Chicago lawyer, was named in the trial of the separate maintenance suit of Mrs. Annette Mayer, formerly of Chicago, in progress today. Testimony that Darrow, during a visit to Los Angeles in 1907, embraced Mrs. Mayer, was given by Miss Caroline Moore, a neighbor of the plaintiff. Several years later she said that when Darrow returned here to defend the McNamara brothers, dynamiters, she recognized him. Mrs. Mayer admitted Darrow visited her in a professional capacity, but said Mrs. Darrow accompanied him on each occasion.

TROOPS RESTORE ORDER.

Columbus, O., Sept. 12.—Troops were withdrawn from New Lexington, O., early today, order having been restored following a riot last evening when stones, eggs and other missiles were thrown at Jeremiah Crowley, who claimed to be a former Catholic priest, and who, in a lecture, attacked the Catholic church.

HUNTERS OVERCHARGED 25 CENTS FOR LICENSES.

Ingham County Clerk Has Been Collecting More Than Law Allows.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 12.—Contrary to an opinion handed out by Attorney-General Fellows, the county clerk's office of Ingham county has been collecting an extra 25 cents on every hunter's license.

It is stated that the officials have misinterpreted the law in several counties in the state, and have been charging an extra quarter for swearing to the applicant.

The law calls for a fee of $1 when a resident of one Michigan county wishes to hunt in another.

William R. Oates, state game and fish warden, declares that he will ask the attorney-general to rule on the question of whether county clerks may return the illegal fees which they have collected.

ODD FELLOWS CONVENTION OPENS IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 12.—Odd Fellows from all parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico gathered here today for the eighty-ninth annual communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., which will open on Monday.

It is estimated that by tomorrow night 75,000 members of the fraternity will be in the city. Tomorrow afternoon there will be special church services for the visitors. At the opening of the grand lodge sessions Monday morning the visitors will be welcomed by Governor Eberhart and Mayor Nye. Grand Sire C. A. Keller, of San Antonio, Texas, will deliver the response.

The big parade will take place Wednesday evening. Great interest is being manifested by the military branch of the order in the prize contests, which will take place at the fair grounds. The military display, it is said, will surpass in its splendor anything heretofore witnessed at a grand lodge meeting. Companies and degree teams from nearly every large city of the United States and Canada will participate in the prize drills.

CHEAPER BUTTER AND BEEF AWAITS NEW TARIFF BILL

New York, Sept. 12.—Butter from Siberia, Australia and Canada, is here in bond waiting to make its debut into the American market along with 1,000 quarters of Argentine beef which arrived today. 140,000 pounds of the Siberian product, pronounced by some experts as good as the best domestic butter, are stored in warehouses waiting the passage of the tariff bill which will reduce the present tariff of six and a half cents to 2½ cents. It is expected this butter will reach dealers at five cents under prevailing prices for a similar grade of domestic dairies. Small quantities are in circulation and Canadian butter is waiting the opening of the gate to the American market.

TROOPS CLASH WITH STRIKERS IN NEAR-RIOT

Exciting Scene Is Enacted When Soldiers Halt Parade in Red Jacket

WILL NOT CONSIDER PLAN

Unlikely Anything Will Come of
Latest Suggestion of Governor Ferris

SPECIAL SESSION IS OPPOSED

Eternal vigilance seems still to be the price of peace in the copper country strike district. Continued early morning picketing by strikers from the north of Calumet resulted today in a repetition of the disorders yesterday, although the outbreaks were not as numerous.

The American flag became a feature in the clashes between the strike pickets and soldiers this morning, when the former, impressed with the belief that the soldiers would not attempt to defend themselves in the face of the American flag, waved "Old Glory" in the faces of the cavalrymen and horses.

Newcomer county again figured in the disorders of the day. Shortly after 5 o'clock men who marched in from that county, augmented by others who had camped all night in Dunn's hall, the Italian hall and other halls, formed in line and proceeded to Laurium, headed by a small party of militant women, while Calumet strikers, headed by Ben Gorgia's party of militants, paraded to Swedetown. During the line of march of each parade, men on their way to work were hooted and taunted, and that there were no open acts of violence, probably is due to the fact that the cavalry patrols and civil officers kept close track of the marchers.

Strikers and Troops Clash.

The two parades returned to Red Jacket at about the same hour, shortly after 6:30 o'clock and joined forces. Near the corner of Eighth and Elm, they attempted to march to Tammarack mine property but were stopped. Here strikers crowded up closely upon the guard. One of the flag bearers held the flag before him in a horizontal position and pushed it against the soldiers as they attempted to force the crowd to move back on Elm street. One of the horses brushed against the flag and it was trampled under foot. Some one in the crowd hid his foot on the flag when the man attempted to recover it and the flag was torn from the staff dangling from its lower connection. A general melee followed when the cavalrymen, cleared the street. Shouts and hoots greeted the soldiers and deputies, and one man, who urged the crowd to offer greater resistance, was taken away from the scene in an automobile. No charge was lodged against him, however. Gradually the angry crowd of strikers was forced back on Elm street as far as the Italian hall. There numerous taunts were hurled at the troopers and strikers deliberately poked flags at the men and tried to arouse their anger. The splendid discipline of the guard was shown, for not a single retaliating measure was attempted.

March Behind Torn Flag.

Another parade was formed, the strikers marching behind the battered banner which had figured so conspicuously in the Elm street disturbance and endeavoring to create the impression that the flag had been cut from its staff by a cavalryman. There were no disorders during the late parade, however, although shouting was frequent.

Peter Osterman was arrested in Calumet location this morning charged with inciting a riot. He was arraigned before Justice Fisher and his examination set for next Thursday. He was remanded to jail being unable to secure bonds.

Gen. P. L. Abbey is expected to arrive here again next week after a brief leave of absence and to assume charge of the military forces here.

Maj. George L. Harvey will leave next week on a short leave of absence to visit his home in Port Huron.

No Settlement in Sight.

It is unlikely anything will come of the latest plan of Governor Ferris to settle the strike in the copper country. In a conference with Clarence Darrow, attorney for the Western Federation of Miners, yesterday at Lansing it was suggested by the governor that the men go back to work pending an official investigation by a commission named by the governor, the plan not
